

ADHD Educational Classes

Presented by Dr. Joy Mauldin, Psy. D

Class Options:

- Preschool & Elementary Age – ADHD coping skills, parenting techniques, questions and answers. What to look for in your child to see if he/she has ADHD, concerns of children already diagnosed, side effects, medication “vacations”, parenting and coping.
- Middle School – How to deal with hormone changes, aggression or mood base concerns, increased dosage, school transitions, parenting and coping.
- High School – How to deal with hormone changes, aggression or mood base concerns, increased dosage, school transitions, parenting and coping.
- Panel of Professionals – Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner, Pediatrician and Psychologist panel discuss physical and mental implications of ADHD. Medication options.
*Note: This class is for all age ranges.

Who should attend:

- Parents, caregivers, and professionals who work with children with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) in schools and the community.
- Child care is not provided.
- Oregon Registry SET ONE certificates under the CKC – Special Needs, will be available for child care providers – pending.

Dates and Time: Tuesdays, 6:00 pm- 8:00 pm

- Oct. 13, 2015: Preschool -Elementary Age
- Oct. 20, 2015: Middle School Age
- Oct. 27, 2015: High School Age
- Nov. 3, 2015: Panel of Professionals*

Location: Community Health Education Center on the Salem Hospital Campus, Building D, 939 Oak Street

Cost: $5 for each class. All participants are encouraged to attend the Panel of Professionals.

Note: If the child is currently a patient at Childhood Health Associates of Salem (CHAOS) there is no charge.

the heart of healing

To register: Call 503-814-2432 (CHEC)
or online at salemhealth.org/chec

Community Health Education Center

A part of Salem Health