Have you ever wondered how teachers often seem to have your children under a spell of cooperation? How your child at home seems less than able, but quite capable and independent at school?

Join Cathy as she reveals four simple, do-able goals of gracious parenting! By learning more about the developmental needs of children, you will gain tools to use every day to help guide your children in becoming more capable and independent.

Cathy Swan is an Early Childhood Educator with over 35 years of experience working with both children and adults. She has lived in Maine and Australia and now calls Oregon home. She is the Head of School of the Montessori School of Beaverton in Portland, OR
