

Setting the Stage: FOUR CORE ROLES FOR INCLUSION AND BELONGING

Detective. Coach. Interior Designer. Bridge. Join us for this interactive, FREE virtual workshop with Inclusion Consultant Kat King and discover how you can embrace each role to support youth of all abilities in your program.

The content will focus on what you need to know and how to get the information (Detective), building skills and providing accommodations (Coach), modifying environments (Interior Designer), and fostering friendships and relationships (Bridge).

The fun and relaxed format includes plenty of time for questions and discussion. You will leave with practical ideas and impactful resources that will make you a superstar in your program.
