8:30-4:30

Where

OregonASK/OCDC Offices
9140 SW Pioneer Ct E, Wilsonville

Cost

$50 per participant

Light snacks will be provided and the training will break for one hour for lunch

In this interactive training, participants will explore how to engage school-aged youth in Mozilla Web Clubs with a focus on web literacy as outlined in the Mozilla web literacy map. Participants will explore how to support youth voice, successfully create groups and teams for Web Literacy activities, and how to issue digital badges for Mozilla 21st Century Skills.

Training Objectives:

- Participants will explore aspects of the Mozilla Web Literacy Map and apply them to skills involved in Web Club participation.
- Participants will explore methods for facilitating youth-lead activities, including ways to work successfully in small groups while promoting youth voice.
