

4th Annual

Saturday, May 18th

Set 2 Training

SPRING FLING 2013

Umpqua Community College
Lang Event Center

Ready to take your teaching to the next level?

Join us as we examine research and discuss strategies through play that support children and youth in developing executive function abilities. In the afternoon we will explore the role of reflection and intentionality in early childhood settings. Through practice you will learn how to select intentional and reflective responses and strategies that raise your effectiveness as a teacher.

Facilitated by: Mellie Bukovsky-Reyes
Focus: Preschool age

SCHEDULE:

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 8:30 | Doors Open/Sign In - Coffee & Scones; Vendor Tables |
| 9-12 | Session 1 - Play & the Development of Executive Function
CKC: Human Growth & Development 3 hours - Set 2 |
| 12-12:30 | Lunch & Door Prizes
Marinated Roast Beef with roasted yukon potatoes,
seasonal vegetable, tossed green salad and dessert |
| 12:30-3:30 | Session 2 - Reflection & Intentionality "Tools for Effective Teachers"
CKC: Human Growth & Development 3 hours - Set 2 |

Cost: $12

Registration through UCC opens April 1st.
Call 541.440.4601 or register online at www.regonline.com/2013springfling

This training is funded in part by the Ford Family Foundation as a follow up to the Fall Early Childhood Care & Education Conference in October 2012 at UCC.

LCC and UCC are equal opportunity employers and educators